- Strong organisational skills, including experience of information exam entry and record keeping.
- Good teamwork skills, and the ability to work collaboratively.
- Having a strong sense of duty to those in your care and a problem-solver.
- Communicate well, both on paper and verbally.
- Display a working knowledge of the LAMDA exam guidelines, syllabus requirements

Key Tasks & Responsibilities

- Planning, preparation and delivery of LAMDA lessons.
- Recording and reporting on the development, progress and attainment of pupils.
- To communicate effectively with pupils and parents.
- Preparing pupils for examinations and assisting in the examination entries.
- Promoting the general progress and well-being of individual pupils, and groups of pupils.
- Assisting with the co-ordination and organisation of School performances, where required.
- Participating, as required, in meetings at the school that relate to the curriculum or the administration or the organisation of LAMDA.
- Maintaining good order and discipline among the pupils and safeguarding their health and safety both when they are on the School premises and when they are engaged in authorised School activities elsewhere, as required.
- Promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young persons for whom you are responsible and with whom you come into contact.

Safeguarding

The post holder's responsibility will be to adhere to and ensure compliance with the School's Safeguarding Policy at all times. This means promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children for whom they are responsible, or with whom they come into contact with. If in the course of carrying out their duties the post holder becomes aware of any actual or potential risks to the safety or welfare of children in the school, they must report any concerns to the school's Designated Safeguarding Leads or to the Head.
